I went for a walk one misty, magical day in the woods by Casco Bay.

A painting of a forest scene. The background is a dense forest of tall, thin trees with a blueish-green tint. In the middle ground, a small, glowing orange fox-like creature is visible, looking towards the viewer. The foreground is a grassy clearing with a tree stump on the right and a large rock on the left. The overall mood is mysterious and magical.

Surely there be faeries
here, I thought.

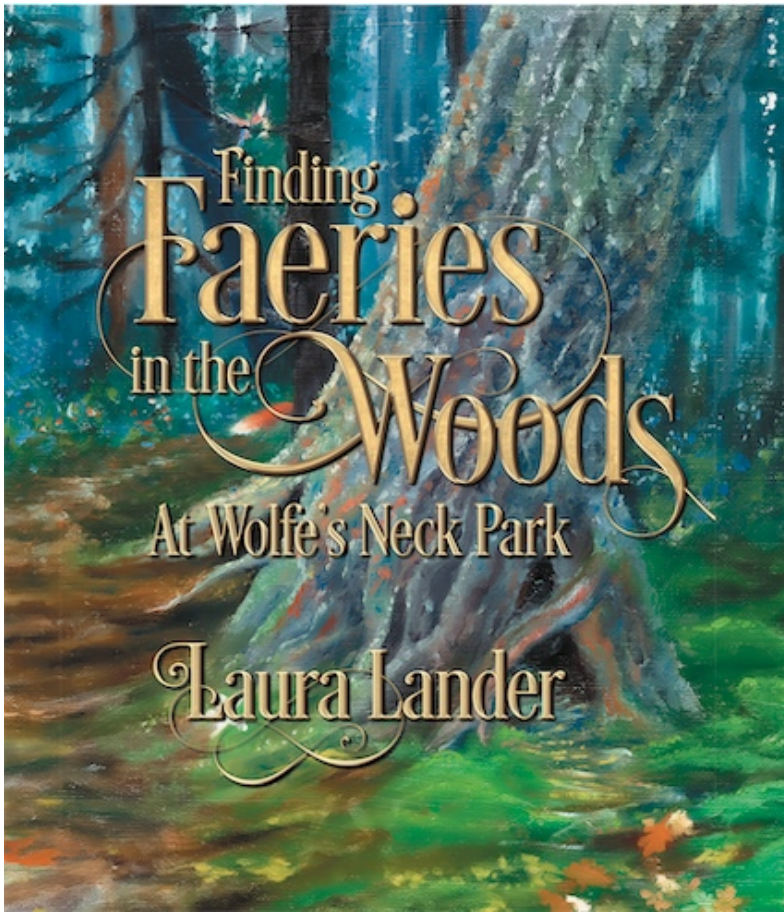

Shhh... maybe we will see some!

By the looks of it,
some faeries may be
tall and thinnish.

And others may be
wee and roundish.

Some may like to live up high.
