Valentine's Day was coming! Marco decided to make a Valentine to send to his grandmother, who lived in a town far away.

¡Llegó el día de San Valentín! Marco decidió hacerle un regalo a su abuela, que vivía en una ciudad muy lejana.

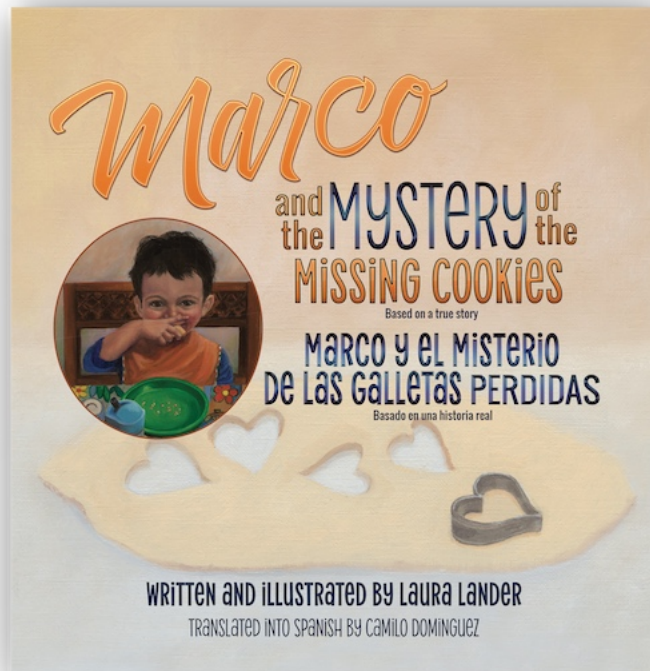

He used his crayons, paper and scissors to make a heart shape. He folded it and put it in an envelope. Marco's mother helped to write the address. Marco's father helped to mail it.

Usó sus crayones, papel y tijeras para hacer un corazón. Lo dobló y lo puso en un sobre. La madre de Marco ayudó a escribir la dirección. El padre de Marco lo ayudó a enviarlo por correo.

Meanwhile, far away, his grandmother was thinking of what she would send to Marco for Valentine's Day. "I know!" she thought.
"I will bake some cookies and send them in the mail!"

Mientras tanto, muy lejos, su abuela estaba pensando en lo que le enviaría a Marco para el día de San Valentín. "¡Ya sé!" Pensó. "¡Haré unas galletas y las enviaré por correo!"

When a surprise package of Valentine cookies goes missing, a child's bedtime imagination fills in the blanks of how and where with increasingly fanciful scenarios. A new day brings a neighborly visit and the mystery is solved in a simply delicious ending.
